

"DEM" WOMEN ASK IF WILSON'S NAME WAS WRONGLY USED

Election of Mrs. Ayres as Head of Women's League Causes
Sobs and Worse.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—If a certain lady took President-elect Woodrow Wilson's name in vain, and if the afore-said lady used that august name to help Mrs. Steven B. Ayres to the presidency of the Woman's National Democratic League, then a lot of other ladies who are but slightly recovered to-day from the effects of the election would like to know how it was done. Also will some one have the goodness to tell them why and by what right? In other words, did Mr. Wilson interfere in the election, and, if not, are we going to tolerate such political trickery in our ranks, sisters?

Mrs. John Sherwin Crosby of New York thinks Mr. Wilson never asked that Mrs. Ayres be elected. The fact that Mrs. Crosby was defeated by Mrs. Ayres has nothing to do with her opinion, not the slightest.

Neither is there any motive but that of strict love for the truth in the statement of Mrs. Ayres's friends that Mr. Wilson most certainly did favor Mrs. Ayres.

All the remarks are being made wholly for the general good of the league.

For three hours it looked as if Mrs. Crosby would win easily, for her stock rose suddenly and rapidly, and wavering delegates deserted Mrs. Ayres and entered the Crosby camp; but the appearance of Mrs. Matthew T. Scott, President-General of the Daughters of the American Revolution, turned the tide, and saved the day for Mrs. Ayres. Mrs. Scott in putting the name of Mrs. Ayres before the convention declared that President-elect and Mrs. Wilson desired the election of Mrs. Ayres. Mrs. Scott was challenged to prove her statement about the Wilsons by Mrs. Charles Morgan, wife of the General. In the ruckus that followed Mrs. Crosby was asked to retire from the chair and let the one next in authority preside. She didn't.

After the nominating speeches were over the ballot was ordered. During the calling of the roll it developed that somebody voted for Mrs. Scott without her authority or knowledge, and she cast another ballot. A protest was raised and President Crosby ordered the votes destroyed and another ballot taken. Mrs. Ayres was elected.

Then Mrs. Crosby, not a whit un-nerved by defeat, rose and said: "I am very glad, ladies, that you have elected a new President. Regarding the statement referring to Mr. Wilson, I wish to say that both Mr. and Mrs. Wilson are friends of mine, and I know he would not interfere in an election of this organization. I propose that he shall hear how his name has been brought into this affair. I have lost the election because of the question whether I am a free-trader and single taxpayer or not, and since this is the case I do not care to preside over such a narrow-minded set of women."

Mrs. Ayres, though the victor, passed out of the room in tears.

Miss Becker Holmes, who was connected with the Wilson-Marshall Women's organization in the campaign, nominated Mrs. Crosby for President and Mrs. Scott named Mrs. Ayres.

Miss Holmes stood in the aisle and spoke. Mrs. Scott went to the rostrum to speak.

"It is not parliamentary to make nominating speeches from the stand," said Mrs. Crosby as Mrs. Scott went up the steps.

"Beg pardon," said Mrs. Scott, turning back.

A storm of hisses followed.

"Only the asp and a spent hiss and only the almy trail of the serpent were left in the Garden of Eden," said Mrs. Scott.

A Scott demonstration followed.

"Where shall the vote be counted?" asked the tellers.

"Inside," said one faction.

"Outside," said the other.

It was all over. Mrs. Ayres got 33 and Mrs. Crosby 28 votes, the ballots being counted in the hall.

Pennsylvania People Rely On Splendid Kidney Remedy

It is with grateful feelings I can testify to the merits of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, which I had occasion to use for bladder trouble, which my former physician and patent medicines was unable to relieve.

I was troubled with terrible pains in my back which deprived me of rest and sleep at night. A few years ago I had a severe sickness and lay in convulsions for forty-eight hours or more and the attending physician claimed it was all caused by kidney trouble. Upon taking Swamp-Root I was relieved and have been healthy and have had but little penetrating sickness since. In all cases of tired and worn out feeling caused by kidney trouble, the person so suffering will without mistake do the right thing to give Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root a fair trial.

Any person wishing to write me, by enclosing stamp, will have ready reply.

Very truly yours,
MRS. S. E. CARSKLON,
Vine Station, Jersey Shore, Pa.
Sworn and subscribed before me this 24 day of May, 1912.
